

The Historic Locations of the Byram Shubert Library

First Site: 1931

289 Delavan Avenue
New Lebanon Library

Second Site: 1933

1 Mead Avenue
Corner of Mead and
Delavan Avenues

Third Site: 1952

229 Mill Street
A small storefront library

Fourth Site: 1954

245 Mill Street
Old Fire Station

Fifth Site: 1974

21 Mead Avenue
Byram Shubert Library

Sixth Site: 2006

286 Delavan Avenue
St. Paul Lutheran Church
Temporary site

Seventh Site: 2009

21 Mead Avenue
The New Byram
Shubert Library

The Byram Shubert Library Then and Now

First site, 1931: 289 Delavan Avenue, "New Lebanon Library," second floor of Cygnet Athletic Club, now Byram Archibald Neighborhood Center.

Second site, 1933: 1 Mead Avenue, Corner of Mead and Delavan Avenues; formerly Mrs. Larsen's Boarding House, now Byram Fire Department.

Third site, 1952: 229 Mill Street, a small storefront, now Executive Corner Deli and Catering.

Seventh site, 2009: 21 Mead Avenue, the new Byram Shubert Library.

Fourth site, 1954: Old Fire Station at 245 Mill Street, now Jones, Footer, Margeotes, an architectural firm.

Fifth site, 1974: 21 Mead Avenue, Byram Shubert Library.

Sixth site, 2006: 286 Delavan Avenue, St. Paul Lutheran Church, temporary site while library was being renovated.